I am enclosing a confirmation request from our auditors in connection with the $50,000 advance made to the Government Employees Health Association, Inc. under our agreement of October 26, 1960.

The letter is an audit inquiry routinely made when performing an examination.

The auditors have not had access to any records pertaining to your group plan. By examining the records in our accounting department, they have been able to determine only that $50,000. has been recorded as an amount advanced to the Government Employees Health Association, Inc.

As in the past, records concerning your health plan are maintained as strictly confidential.

Your reply to the auditors will enable them to determine that our accounts receivable are correctly recorded.

Sincerely,

A. W. Randall

Dear Mr. Erdenberger:

May I apologize for the delay in answering your letter of 29 August 1960. I am sure, when you realize that this was caused by my recent hospitalization and delayed vacation, the above apology will be accepted.

Thank you for the check for $50,000.00 made out to GEHA.

Enclosed is the carbon copy which you requested, and which I have signed as an acknowledgment of receipt of the check.

Sincerely,

AGREEMENT

Agreement between the Government Employees Health Association, herein known as the Policyholder, and Mutual Benefit Health & Accident Association, herein known as the Insurer, regarding the use of $50,000 forwarded to the Policyholder by the Insurer on August 29, 1960.

In consideration of the $50,000 sent by the Insurer to the Policyholder, it is understood and agreed that this money will be deposited by GEHA and used for purposes of claim payments by the Policyholder in accordance with the provisions of Group Policy GNG 1799, Government Employees Health Association. This $50,000 will remain on deposit with GEHA and will be used exclusively for drafts drawn by the Policyholder for purposes of claim payments in accordance with the provisions of Group Policy GNG 1799. A statement will be periodically forwarded by the Policyholder to the Insurer whereupon the Insurer will forward its check in the amount of the total claim payments represented by the statement to GEHA in order to replenish the $50,000 deposit. At the termination of Group Policy GNG 1799 all or any part of the $50,000 which remains after payment of outstanding claims shall be returned to the Insurer by the Policyholder. Interest, if any, on the deposit shall accrue to the sole use of the Insurer.
